on two previous occasions in 1906 & 1911 From the papers of this office put up herewith it is seen that a wooden leg was supplied to him in 1906 & 1908. So altogether, it appears to have been supplied to him on 3 occasions in 1906, 1908 & 1911. There are no papers in this office about the supply made in 1911. From the records sent by the Dy Comr it is seen, that it has been made without the sanction of Govt probably under the impression that there is a general Govt order directing the grant of a wooden leg to the petitioner every year. On reply to repeated enquiries from the Dy Comr as to whether there is any such general order, the Amildar forwarded Extracts of the From & To registers relating to ~~Rubkari~~ Order No. 428/31 & 22-7-1906 from the Mag. ~~Supt.~~ Secretary, and stated that on the authority of that ~~Rubkari~~ order a wooden leg was being ~~supplied~~ supplied to him. But on a reference to the original ~~Rubkari~~ Order itself, it is seen that it has no general application at all and has merely sanctioned the supply of a wooden leg in that year. Further, a separate Govt. order was passed with regard to the supply in 1908. The supply in 1911 seems to have therefore been made without Govt sanction under a mistaken impression.

It is reported that the wooden leg supplied in 1911 is worn out by 4 or 5 inches and that the petitioner is ~~in~~ badly in need of a fresh supply. The Dy Comr therefore recommends the grant of a wooden leg now, the cost being met from the Gunnbag Funds as before. The petitioner however prays for a general order directing the supply of a wooden leg to him every year.

As to the query of the H. Secry on pp 2 of the office note, it is submitted that there is no Muni. Langarkhana at Mysore, as at Bangalore. But there are many charities ~~etc~~ established by Govt and by private gentlemen which supply the want of a mural Langarkhana. The Kangalarakki charities in H.H. the Maharaja's Chattram, the P.G.M.C. Fund, the Jaggulala Dharmasala &c seem to serve the purpose of a Langarkhana also.

Even the Gumbaz Langarkhana extends its help to deserving persons residing at Mysore & other places. The petitioner has ~~also~~ abroad received help from the Gumbaz funds on three previous occasions, as stated above -
